

Love our tiny playhouse?

Patrons love our turn-of-the-last-century schoolhouse as much as we do, but the old gal is getting on in years. So our capital improvements "wish list" keeps growing. Can you help?

In addition, our quest for quality led us to create a Visiting Artists program that is unique among community theatres.

Throughout the year, we bring in top directors, acting coaches and technicians from professional Chicago area theatres to conduct workshops and consult with our casts and crews. Your help makes our Visiting Artists program possible.

That's why we invite your support as a Patron of the Village Theatre Guild. Your donation is tax deductible to the full extent of the law.

If you enjoy good theater in an intimate setting, please fill out the form below, and mail it with your check or credit card authorization to:

Off the Map

by Joan Ackermann

Bo Groden sifts through memories when she was 11, where her father spirals into depression. Bo longs for a miracle. It happens when an IRS agent appears and never leaves. An off-beat evocative comedy with a compelling and lyrical quality.

October 15 - November 6

Directed by Sue Keenan
Produced by Charles Bernstein

The Real Inspector Hound

by Tom Stoppard

The classic, hilarious spoof on the Agatha Christie "whodunit" by the witty British playwright, is seen through the eyes of two theater critics who enter the "play"... and can't get out.

January 14 - February 5

Directed by Bill Burghardt
Produced by Maggie Fredricks

Apartment 3A

by Jeff Daniels

Rebounding from a failed relationship, Annie moves to a new apartment. In this romantic comedy she searches for a reason to hope again with a mysterious next-door neighbor who teaches her what it truly means to be in love forever.

March 18 - April 9

Directed by Lisa S. Dolnic
Produced by David Dolnic

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee

Music and Lyrics by William Finn
Book by Rachel Sheinkin

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee is a hilarious tale of overachievers' angst chronicling the experience of six adolescent outsiders vying for the spelling championship of a lifetime.

May 20 - June 11

Directed by Jim Liesz
Produced by Judy Dybas
